ARTS AND CULTURE: A DRIVING FORCE FOR SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

- ▶ The Canadian Francophonie arts and culture sector (outside Quebec) employs over 36,100 people and generated $5.83 billion in 2022.
- ▶ The essential services offered by our members ensure cultural access, support artists from their early careers to professional success, strengthen the vitality of our communities and their ability to thrive in French, and promote inclusivity and diversity.

A TRUSTED PARTNER

At the political level, the FCCF collaborates with federal institutions to address key artistic and cultural issues in the Francophonie and actively contributes to policy development.

This working relationship is formalized through the Collaboration Agreement For the Development of Arts and Culture in the Francophone Minority Communities of Canada, co-chaired by FCCF and Canadian Heritage since 1998.

AND INNOVATION

POLITICAL PRIORITIES

- ▶ Ensure effective implementation of the modernized Broadcasting Act and *Official Languages Act to promote Francophone content and strengthen government support for the sustainable development of our communities.
- ▶ Ensure stable and adequate funding for the entire industry, in order to drive innovation and strengthen organizations that serve as pillars of cultural expression and artistic development across all regions and disciplines.
- ▶ Position the arts and culture sector as a key force for economic and social development, recognizing that its members and their networks provide services that are essential to the vitality of Francophone communities across Canada. Living in French means maintaining a deep connection with one's culture.
